Profile

Corporate & Capital Markets

Attorney Xu is one of our founders. He became a practicing lawyer in 1993 and obtained his securities qualification in 2000. Over the past decades, Attorney Xu has successfully represented many enterprises in their restructuring projects, stock issues and listings, bond issues, asset package dispositions, and mergers and acquisitions. He has handled a wide range of matters, including maritime cases, commerce, loan financing, investment and joint stock, letters of credit, and IP infringement. He is one of the most highly sought after lawyers in China for disputes involving securities, finance, investments, and commercial affairs.
