Dispute Resolution

Tracy Chen worked as a social responsibility auditor for foreign companies for six years, gaining a deep understanding of ESG concepts, international labor standards, and the compliance systems of multinational corporations. She excels at integrating international standards with local Chinese legal practices. She previously worked at V&T Intellectual Property Operations Management Company, Shenzhen Liye Group, and Guangdong Junyan Law Firm, accumulating extensive experience in intellectual property, dispute resolution, corporate compliance, and investment and financing. In August 2025, she officially joined V&T (Shenzhen) Law Firm as an independent attorney, focusing on providing clients with systematic, forward-looking, and practical legal solutions.
